Applicable to All Successors and Assigns

Sir,

As an inhabitant of this great nation, I hereby invoke my right to honourably petition His Majesty on several matters of constitutional importance and seek protection of my rights according to His Majesty's obligations.

There are a number of ideologies promoted within proposed statutes (e.g. Schools Bill {HL 35/49}) together with several recent General Public Enactments of Parliament, international agreements and treaties that are unconstitutional and a trespass upon my common rights. The actions currently being taken by members of Parliament, your Ministers, Lords Temporal and Spiritual et al. are thereby breaching their duty as trustees and are in contempt of duty and must resign office.

To subvert my undoubted and unalienable rights and customs is in direct conflict with the Constitution of the United Kingdom, with the Great Charter 1215 (Magna Carta), with the Declaration of Rights 1688/9 and, above all, with His Majesty's Accession Declaration Oath and the Oaths of Office of His Majesty's ministers. Every one of these protections stand to this day, which is why they are now being invoked by my petition.

Herewith is attached my signed affidavit that I am providing in support for my petition, requesting that His Majesty uphold the common law and customs of this realm and prevent wrongs being done. Use of either the Great Seal or Privy Seal (including under the Demise of the Crown Act (1702)) to give Royal Assent of any Bill, writ, letter or commandment seeking to subvert my undoubted and unalienable rights, and the ancient customs afforded for my benefit is morally repugnant and dishonourable.

"Blesse God for Queene Elizabeth, whose continuall charge to her Justices agreeable with her ancient Lawes, is, that for no commandement under the great or privie Seale, writs or letters, common right bee disturbed or delayed. And if any such commandement (upon untrue surmises) should come, that the Justices of her Lawes should not therefore cease to doe right in any point: And this agreeth with the ancient Law of England, declared by the great Charter, and spoken in the person of the King; Nulli vendemus, nulli negabimus, aut differemus Justiciam vel Rectum."

Sir Edward Coke, Knt. Reports Part II (1602)

Attached is my affidavit of truth which I include as my petition to His Majesty.

In truth and Honour by a
